Chancery Causes: R. G. Bowman vs. Nancy Bowman

Morefield

CA-Divorce

To the Hon. H. A. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee County Va.
Humbly complaining your orator, R. J. Bowman, sheweth to the court, That he is now, and has been a citizen of this county and state, for more than twelve montys next preceding the institution of this suit; that on the       day of       , 1881, he intrmarried with one Nancy Bowman, then Nancy Morefield, and that they lived and cohabited together for many years, as man and wife, during all of which period your orator was a kind and indulgent husband; that he treated her as well as his circumstances would allow. But she, not regarding the duties incumbent upon her as your orators wife, abandoned your orator on the       day of       , 189 , without your orators connivance or consent, and has for a period of more than ~~three~~ years, continued to live separate and apart from your orator without his consent .
Your orator being therefore remediless save in a court of equity, prays that the said Nancy Bowman be made a party defendant to this bill and be required to answer the same; ~~that~~ but she need not do so under oath, the oath being waived; that proper process ~~xxxxxxx~~ issue and all proper decrees and orders be entered; that a decree be granted and entered, dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted and now existing between your orator and the said Nancy Bowman; and that all other such further and general relief be granted yor orator as in the premises may be just and proper, and your orator will ever pray ~~xxx~~ etc.
